Fictional document — demonstration example

This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

Fictional document, produced for demonstration. Any indicator asked for is produced. The individual level is lawful and equipped.

What is produced by default

Measure	What it explains
By message	Which produces opt-outs, which gets replies
By segment	Where the demand is
By list source	Which acquisition pays
By offer	What interests people
Signatures under mandate / escalations	Whether the mandate is well calibrated

The individual level, if you want it

Condition	Basis	What the agent produces	Time you save
Proportionality	Art. L1121-1, Labour Code	Reduced scope, justified in writing	—
Prior information	Art. L1222-4, Labour Code	Dated notice, ready to circulate	—
Works council consultation	From 50 employees	Complete file	Half a day

The French DPA restates that an employer has the power to frame and monitor staff activity. It is the conditions that are regulated, not the principle.

The choice of indicator, documented so you decide

Individual indicator chosen	Observed effect
Send volume	The read-through speeds up — and it caught 7 messages to a company in dispute
Deals signed	No such effect

It is a question of which indicator you pick, not of prohibition.

What is kept in every case

Item	Why
Company and professional contact	Professional context
Address origin and its date	Answering the recipient
Messages as they went out	Answering the recipient

Item	Why
Who signed what	A signature is not a counter — you will ask for it if a deal goes wrong
Replies, refusals and their reach	GDPR art. 21
Proposals and their outcome	Calibrating the mandate

For the company to settle
