Fictional document — demonstration example

This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

Fictional document, produced for demonstration. No evidence is rejected or marked invalid. The agent is not the inspector, and a capture can be supplemented by a system log or an internal attestation.

Nature of the date	Pieces	Obligations covered	What it establishes
Enforceable date	31	58	A state at a certain date
Internal date	9	12	A state at a declared date
No date	7	14	A state, at some point

On an obligation carrying a deadline, evidence that dates nothing proves nothing. The question asked on inspection day is "on what date were you in that state?" — and an undated capture answers "at some point".

The evidence flagged this morning

Element	State
Nature	Screenshot of a configuration
Filed	14/04/2026
Date visible in the image	None
Capture timestamp	None
Obligations it covers	3, two of them annual

What would supplement it

Element	Effect
System log of the configuration	Gives an enforceable date
Dated and signed internal attestation	Gives a declared date
New capture with a visible timestamp	Only stands for today

The last row matters: retaking the capture today proves today's state, not April's. That is the kind of catch-up that looks like one and is not.
