Fictional document — demonstration example

This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

Fictional document, produced for demonstration. None of these points characterises a breach. Each records a dated fact about the company's register, and comes back with what it makes possible.

#	Point spotted	What triggered it	What is recorded	Recipient	Chase
1	Obligation with no 2026 evidence	30/06 deadline overrun	Absence of a document	Owner + manager	48 h
2	11 orphan obligations	Owner has left	3 due within 4 months	Management	7 d
3	Undated evidence	Screenshot of 14/04	Stands for 3 obligations	Whoever filed it	7 d
4	Inspection announced for October	Letter received	12 obligations unreviewed since 2024	Management + all owners	Weekly

> The first point goes to two people, not one. An assigned owner who has left the company does not react, and that is precisely the case of the second.

Five guarantees that protect the company: the agent brings the dated facts, the company keeps the judgement

What the agent leaves to the company	Why
Declare compliance	A tool's certificate can be used against the company
Characterise a breach	It is assessed against the text and the situation
Appoint an owner	An act of organisation that commits the person
Remove an obligation from the register	It would disappear from the record
Produce a compliance rate	It would reward an incomplete register
