Fictional document

> Fictional document — demonstration example
> This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

> Fictional document, produced for demonstration. Filter false positives are the only indicator that measures over-moderation — moderation that is too broad produces no complaint.

Item	Kept?	Why
Removals, rule, decision, date, contestation	Yes	See the previous document
Hidings and their outcome	Yes	The agent's only act
Reports and threshold reached	Yes	Understanding a delay
Filter false positives	Yes	Measuring over-moderation
Grounds invoked outside the published rules	Yes	Measuring the gap to the posted text
Per-member history	No	Would handle the message by its author

Item	Kept?	Why
Statistics per moderator	No	Would make the decisions that count expensive
Individual handling time	No	Same reason
Third-party data extracted from a hidden message	No	That would be collecting it

> The last row deserves reading. Hiding a message containing a third party's address does not mean extracting that address to check it: the message is hidden, and its content stays inside the message.

What the monthly summary contains

Content	What it indicates
Removal grounds by rule	What causes problems in the community
Removals outside the published rules	The gap between practice and the text
Filter false positives	Over-moderation, which never complains
Handling times by time band	The weekend's 40 hours

> All four indicators concern the arrangement, none concerns people. Two measure what the community produces, and two measure what moderation produces — it is the second pair that is missing everywhere.

To be set by the company

Retention period for removed messages and their ground: _____ months

Retention period for hidings and their outcome: _____ months
