Fictional document — demonstration example

This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

Fictional document, produced for demonstration. No request was ill-intentioned: a volume to deliver, an immobilised vehicle, an absence.

Overrun found	Handling
Driving time exceeded	Plan not produced
Statutory break removed	Plan not produced

A plan that is produced is a plan that goes out: the warning is read once, the plan is followed all day.

The three options offered

Option	Decided by
Remove stops	Operations
Defer them	Operations

Option	Decided by
Split them across a second vehicle	Operations

Outcome for the 11	Count
Split	7
Deferred	3
Kept after an extra driver was found	1
Sent out in overrun	0

An overrun only shows afterwards: a driver running thirty minutes over does not report it, and it is they who carry the responsibility.

Scope of this document: the service operated by Blue Lemon Agent. For an agent deployed at your premises, the applicable location is that of the architecture set out in the quotation and verified before commissioning; local execution is announced only for the configuration explicitly described and accepted in the quotation; the applicable isolation depends on the deployment mode set out in the quotation, no dedicated isolation being presumed; the encryption mechanisms in transit and at rest, their components and key management are those documented for the architecture chosen; roles and permissions are configured and accepted for the identities and systems actually connected; the events logged, their content, their retention period and who may access them are defined for the deployment chosen.
