Fictional document

Fictional document — demonstration example

This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

Fictional document, produced for demonstration. The discussion was about the reliability of the tools, when neither was at fault.

Report	Value	What is counted
Management	847	Orders invoiced between the 1st and the 31st
Sales	912	Orders signed, excluding cancelled
Gap	65	Signed and not yet invoiced

Both reports displayed "Orders". The choice is in the query, not in the title — and a query does not get read in a meeting.

The plain-words definition	Beside the figure, not in an appendix
The cut-off date	Beside the figure
The denominator	Beside the figure

Both figures now sit in the same report, with the 65 named: nobody had to choose, the gap was the information.

Scope of this document: the service operated by Blue Lemon Agent. For an agent deployed at your premises, the applicable location is that of the architecture set out in the quotation and verified before commissioning; local execution is announced only for the configuration explicitly described and accepted in the quotation; the applicable isolation depends on the deployment mode set out in the quotation, no dedicated isolation being presumed; the encryption mechanisms in transit and at rest, their components and key management are those documented for the architecture chosen; roles and permissions are configured and accepted for the identities and systems actually connected; the events logged, their content, their retention period and who may access them are defined for the deployment chosen.
