Fictional document — demonstration example

This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

Fictional document, produced for demonstration. Everything that compresses a text treats an exception as secondary — it is mechanical, and it is this trade's central defect.

Element	In the document	In the original summary
The rule	Present	Present
The "unless…" condition (11 words)	Present	Absent

The summary said what the rule provides; the document said when it does not apply. Both sentences were true separately, and either without the other is false.

What is never compressed again

Element	Handling
Exception	Carried over as it stands, in quotation marks

Element	Handling
Condition	Same
Reservation	Same
Duration	Same

> Even if they take up a third of the summary. It is this demonstrator's only rule that deliberately degrades reading comfort.

What it changes, and what it costs

	Before	After
Fluency	Good	Lower
Exceptions lost	Possible	None

Fluency is exactly what made the eleven words disappear. That is why it is sacrificed first.

What appears at the end of every summary

The list of what was not carried over, one line per item. A summary that does not say what it omits lets people believe nothing was omitted.
