Fictional document — demonstration example

This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

Fictional document, produced for demonstration. The percentage is declared, and it costs nothing to stay there.

Level	What it demands
Moving to 100%	Declaring it finished and risking contradiction
Going back down	Explaining
Staying at 90%	Nothing

Finding	Count
Tasks at 90% for over six weeks	23
With no change of content over the period	12

What the agent looks at instead

The date of the last real modification — a document filed, an exchange, a sub-task closed. A task with no movement for three weeks is flagged, whatever its percentage.

What lay behind the 12

Actual situation	Count
Awaiting a decision nobody had been asked for	7
Finished without being closed	3
Having lost their purpose	2

Scope of this document: the service operated by Blue Lemon Agent. For an agent deployed at your premises, the applicable location is that of the architecture set out in the quotation and verified before commissioning; local execution is announced only for the configuration explicitly described and accepted in the quotation; the applicable isolation depends on the deployment mode set out in the quotation, no dedicated isolation being presumed; the encryption mechanisms in transit and at rest, their components and key management are those documented for the architecture chosen; roles and permissions are configured and accepted for the identities and systems actually connected; the events logged, their content, their retention period and who may access them are defined for the deployment chosen.
