Fictional document — demonstration example

This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

Fictional document, produced for demonstration. Only three gestures run without being asked, and all three protect the file. Anything touching strategy or the service of documents falls under a written, itemised, dated mandate, withdrawable in one word.

The three automatic gestures

Gesture	What it protects	Measured over six months
Index every document dropped into the store	A document dropped on a Friday evening is findable on the Friday evening	1,840 documents indexed
Recompute the deadline schedule on every act received	No deadline is ever discovered	17 recomputations, 4 of which brought a date forward

Gesture	What it protects	Measured over six months
Flag a document cited and absent from the schedule	A source announced is a source produced	11 flags, including the 6 documents requested

What falls under a mandate

Act	What the mandate frames	Time to execute once signed
Service of exhibits	Named list, format, numbering	14 minutes for 23 exhibits
Redaction of a passage	Passages approved one by one, reversible	Immediate
Sending to the firm or to the other side	Recipient, scope, date	Immediate

The additional gesture proposed

Finding	Value	Effect of the gesture proposed
Documents arriving through the file mailboxes	214 over six months	—
Average wait before filing	9 days	Indexed the same day
Scope	Mailboxes designated by the legal department	Withdrawn as easily as it is granted
