Fictional document — demonstration example

This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

Fictional document, produced for demonstration. A service mandate is a written, itemised, dated authorisation, withdrawable in one word: it lists the exhibits to be sent and the redactions approved, and nothing adds itself to it.

What is prepared for the decision

Element of the exhibit sheet	Content
What the exhibit establishes	One sentence, with the exact passage
Opposing assertions contradicted	From 0 to 6 depending on the exhibit, 11 in total for the four major ones
What else it exposes	Passage by passage, with the page
Redaction prepared	Reversible and logged, redacted and full versions both kept

The 61 passages identified across the 23 exhibits

Nature of the passage	Number	Treatment proposed
Personal data of employees	34	Redaction, category retained
Price and margin elements	19	Redaction, overall amount kept where useful to the dispute
Internal exchanges unrelated to the dispute	8	Full redaction of the passage

The terms of the mandate

Clause	Content
Purpose	Send to the firm, in the format and numbering of the schedule, the exhibits listed by name
Scope	The list settled, exhibit by exhibit
Redactions	Those approved among the 61 passages identified
Term	Until the service on the 12th, withdrawable in one word
Trail	Who approved which exhibit, which redaction, to the second
Time to execute	14 minutes for the 23 exhibits, renumbered, redacted and indexed

> The decision to serve remains entirely with the legal department and its counsel; what disappears is the evening of work that used to follow the decision. The approval log prints as one page on request.

Signature of the mandate — name, role, date: _____
