Fictional document — demonstration example

This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

Fictional document, produced for demonstration. Both lists are built by comparing the citations in the opposing pleadings, the schedules served and the content of the document store. Which exhibits are actually served remains for the legal department and its counsel to decide.

The 6 exhibits cited by the other side and not served

Nature	Number	Page of the pleadings where relied on	Assertion it is meant to support
Site meeting minutes	3	p. 14, p. 21, p. 33	The existence of an oral approval of the drawing
Letters from the customer's operator	2	p. 27, p. 44	A complaint predating start on site
Intervention report	1	p. 51	A stoppage of the line

The request for disclosure is drafted exhibit by exhibit, with the exact citation from the pleadings that grounds it and the page it appears on. It goes to counsel, who reviews it, signs it and files it.

The 23 exhibits held and never served

Exhibit	Date	What it establishes	Opposing assertions touched
Countersigned site minutes	18/05/2020	Dates the request to approve the drawing	4
Countersigned site minutes	29/06/2020	Dates the customer's answer	3
Site instruction	11/06/2020	Changes the layout after start on site	2
Message from the customer's technical manager	02/07/2020	Announces a slip himself	2
19 further exhibits	2020 to 2023	Exchanges, surveys, execution documents	0 to 1 each
Total for the four major exhibits	—	—	11 assertions contradicted

> Each of the 23 exhibits comes with a one-page sheet: what it establishes, the opposing assertions it contradicts, and the passages to redact before service. Redaction is the masking of a passage before an exhibit is served; it is reversible and logged.
