Fictional document — demonstration example

This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

Fictitious document, produced for the demonstration. The applicant is identified by an invented file number: a demonstration document has no business carrying a person's situation, and that is exactly the rule the agent applies in the service. Emergency relief is the assistance the rules allow to be granted immediately, without waiting for the committee.

The document check

| Document required by the rules | Present? | Observation |
|---|---|---|
| Household income evidence | Yes | Legible, full period |
| Rent receipt | Yes | For the previous month |
| Family composition | Yes | Matches the existing file |

| Document required by the rules | Present? | Observation |
|---|---|---|
| Evidence of compulsory outgoings | Yes | Energy and insurance |
| Income statement for the current month | No | Written request handed to the person at the front desk — she leaves knowing it, not by letter in eight days |

The disposable income calculation, set out in plain terms

| Line | Origin | Check |
|---|---|---|
| Household income | Evidence filed | Added up, each line referring to its document |
| Compulsory outgoings | Rent receipt, energy bills, insurance | Added up, each line referring to its document |
| Disposable income | The difference, related to the household's number of units | Scale voted by the board alongside, with the date of the resolution |
| Conclusion | The situation falls within the emergency relief criteria of the rules | The calculation can be redone by hand in three minutes — which makes it challengeable, and therefore solid |

Disposable income after essential costs is what remains to the household once compulsory outgoings are paid. The agent does not estimate it: it adds it up, and it writes no value it has not read on a document. Income that cannot be found is never « presumably unchanged »: it is asked for.

The household's assistance history, over three years

| Year | Assistance granted | Why it is attached |
