Fictional document — demonstration example

This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

Fictional document, produced for the demonstration. The same list of documents is asked of everyone, in the same order and with the same reasoning: a three-person company receives exactly the request the group with a law firm receives. That is equal treatment, and it shows on the document.

What the agent checks on every application

Check	What is compared	Result handed over
Completeness	The documents expected against the documents filed, one by one	The list of what is missing, document by document, on the day of filing
Internal consistency — goods	The description on the application, on the contract and on the invoices	The three wordings side by side when they diverge

Check	What is compared	Result handed over
Internal consistency — quantities and place	Quantities must tally, the place of the operation must be the same throughout	The gap quantified, with the line from each document
Follow-up letter	—	Drafted on the office's template; only the reference and the date remain to be entered

That is where files break down, and it only shows when the three documents are put side by side. A file that is consistent on filing is a file examined within the deadline, and it is that deadline the company plans its operation on.

What that changes, measured over the year

Measure	Last year	This year	What it changes for the company
Files complete on filing	44 out of 96	89 out of 96	An answer on the day of filing instead of a letter three weeks later
Rounds of correspondence with companies	52	7	45 fewer exchanges
Statutory processing deadline met	81 times out of 96	96 times out of 96	The operation is planned on a reliable date

The time this shifts on regulatory letters

Step	Before	After	Annual volume	Time given back
Laying out a regulatory letter	24 min — 40 % of the time	6 min — 10 %	380	114 hours

The next step is already written: the list of documents published on the channels where traders already reach the office, with the three questions asked before filing — what kind of operation, where, on which goods. Over the trial quarter, the 22 declarants who used it filed 22 complete cases.
