What stays with the service the day it stops · fictional document

> Fictional document — demonstration example
> This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

> Fictional document, produced for the demonstration. The way out is verified before committing, not after. A dry-run exit is offered at the end of the first quarter, half a day: we switch off, we check that the office works exactly as before, we switch back on.

What there is to dismantle

Item	What becomes of it on the day of stopping	What stays with the service
The index	Deleted	The nine years of archives have not moved by a byte — same files, same rights, same applications

Item	What becomes of it on the day of stopping	What stays with the service
The log of requests and outputs	Handed over in an open format, or destroyed	The service chooses, and that question is settled at go-live
The 41 updated sheets	Already in your files	Made of your own material: they belong to you
The 14 sourced and dated model answers	Exported in a format readable without us	Usable at the counter and on the service's website
The 13 discrepancy rules, the 3 reading rules, the letter templates	Exported in plain form	This is the asset the deployment will have created, and it would not be honest for it to stay with us

What does not exist, and what should be checked with everyone

Point	Status
Migration on the way in	None — therefore no migration on the way out
Replacement of the filing applications	None
Proprietary format	None belongs to us
Change in the way of working	None, other than reading through instead of writing

Public spending, since management control will ask

Point	What is provided	What it allows
Subscription term	Annual, with no tacit renewal clause	Renewal is what requires a decision, not stopping

Point	What is provided	What it allows
Certification of service performed	On listed deliverables: updated sheets, approved answers, records handed over	The public accountant pays on documents, not on a statement from the provider

Certification of service performed is the confirmation that the service has genuinely been provided; without it, the public accountant does not pay. It is provided for from go-live, with the list of deliverables that support it.

> The dry-run date that costs the office least is the first Monday of August — 34 declarations filed that day on average, against 71 on an ordinary day. The protocol fits on one page, and the service will know what the promise is worth before having committed to a second year.

To be settled by the service

Scope of this document: the service operated by Blue Lemon Agent. For an agent deployed at your premises, the applicable location is that of the architecture set out in the quotation and verified before commissioning; local execution is announced only for the configuration explicitly described and accepted in the quotation; the applicable isolation depends on the deployment mode set out in the quotation, no dedicated isolation being presumed; the encryption mechanisms in transit and at rest, their components and key management are those documented for the architecture chosen; roles and permissions are configured and accepted for the identities and systems actually connected; the events logged, their content, their retention period and who may access them are defined for the deployment chosen.
