Fictional document — demonstration example

This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

Fictional document, produced for demonstration. Residents are not named. This list exists to get a form repaired; it does not need to know who tried.

Date	Residents reaching screen 1	Reaching screen 2	Submissions
29/07	6	0	0
30/07	5	0	0
31/07	4	0	0
01/08 to 04/08	18	0	0
05/08 to 07/08	14	0	0
Total	47	0	0

Forty-seven people tried, none got through. The failure rate has been 100% for nine days, which rules out a browser-specific or profile-specific problem.

What the form returns

Step	Resident's action	Portal's response
1	Enters identity and child details	Technical error on validation
2	—	Never reached

The message shown to the resident names neither the cause nor a contact. Of the 47, none called or wrote: they concluded the procedure was not open.

What it represents, in volume

Assumption	Basis	Families concerned
At the August 2025 rate	11 submissions/day × 9 days	≈ 99
At the rate seen before 29/07	12 submissions/day × 9 days	≈ 108

Term starts in three weeks. It is not the number of families that makes the flag urgent, it is the date beyond which it cannot be put right.
