Fictional document — demonstration example

This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

Fictional document, produced for demonstration. Each sheet comes with its minutes: it is putting the two together that gives the search its value, not the sheet alone.

Project	Year	Substrate	Handover	Snag on that lot	Use first?
Mareuil secondary school	2021	In-situ concrete	14/09/2021	None	Yes
Aubel hall	2019	Profiled steel deck	03/07/2019	None	Subject to substrate
Verne library	2022	In-situ concrete	28/06/2022	Yes — cleared 14/03/2023	No — see below

Verne library — the snag

LINDBERGH FORMATION — Blue Lemon Agent — Companies register (RCS) Évry 817 946 114 —
Legal notice (in French): bluelemonagent.ai/mentions-legales

Subject	Height of the waterproofing upstand at the terrace access threshold
Raised by	Technical inspector, at handover on 28/06/2022
Grounds	Height judged insufficient at the threshold
Rework	Upstand raised to the prescribed height
Cleared	14/03/2023
Current document	Amended construction detail, as-built file

> It is the most recent of the three sheets, so the one a keyword search would have surfaced first. Reusing it as drawn means reusing what had to be redone. The order proposed here is not chronological: it rests on the handover minutes.

What is not said here

Whether the same arrangement would raise the same difficulty on your project. The substrate, the exposure and the room classification differ. The precedent is surfaced; the technical judgement belongs to the architect.

What would be attached, on your approval

Trigger	Action	What stays intact
Snag clearance recorded	The snag is attached to the detail concerned	The original sheet stays in place
Sheet predating a rework	It is marked "reworked, see snag of ……"	Its content stays unchanged

A deleted sheet leaves a hole nobody explains. A marked sheet says why it changed — and that sentence is exactly what is missing the day a colleague reopens it.
