Fictional document — demonstration example

This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

Fictional document, produced for the demonstration. Established by comparing two populations within the same inbox — fast replies and late replies — not by opinion.

What the inbox receives, and what it demands

Measure over 90 days	Volume	Per day	Share
Messages received	11,520	128	100 %
Messages opened	4,187	47	36 %
Messages calling for a reply	806	9	7 %
Time spent in the inbox	165 h	1 h 50	—

The two populations of replies, and what separates them

Population	Count	Dominant subject	Correspondent

Replied within 2 h	141	Live site	Known, already in thread
Replied between 2 h and 24 h	462	Commercial, suppliers	Known
Replied after more than 24 h	665	Administrative, contractual	Often new
of which after more than 4 days	203	Contractual	New or institutional

> All three deadlines missed in the previous half-year belong to the « more than 4 days » population. None of the three messages carried a word of urgency in its subject line: the clause that made them critical lived in the contract, not in the message.

The three missed deadlines, reconstructed

Message subject	Days unopened	Clause involved	Consequence borne
« Maintenance contract — annual notice »	11	90-day notice	Unwanted renewal
« Document request — file 2026-114 »	6	Production within 15 days	Bid set aside
« Reminder — annual review »	4	Indexation before anniversary	Prices frozen 12 months

What the briefing changes, item by item

Item	Today	With the briefing
Reading and sorting	1 h 50 a day	A 14-line briefing
Ranking	By the tone of the message	By the contract clause
