Fictional document — demonstration example

This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

Fictional document, produced for demonstration. The only version that can be relied on is the one that was filed. That is a fact, not an opinion — and it heads the page because it governs how the whole table reads.

The three differences that bear on the meeting of 26/09

Article	Filed version (2019)	Internal version ("amended 2022")	Consequence
11 — proxies	2 proxies per member	5 proxies per member	Composition of the vote
9 — quorum	One third of members	One quarter of members	Validity of the meeting
13 — board terms	3 years	2 years	Who is standing down and who is not

> Article 9 is the most serious of the three. A meeting held under a quorum that is not the one in the operative constitution produces challengeable decisions — including the election of the treasurer, whose term ends that day.

The other six differences

Article	Nature	Effect on a vote
2 — objects	One activity added to the list	None
3 — registered address	Different address	None
5 — subscription	Refers to the internal rules in one version	None
7 — expulsion	Wording	None
15 — financial year	Same dates, different drafting	None
17 — dissolution	Wording	None

What was looked for, and what was not found

Document	Looked for	Found?
Minutes of the 2022 meeting	Yes	Yes — records a vote on the constitution
Appendix to the minutes (text voted)	Yes	No
Receipt of an amending declaration	Yes	No
Official gazette publication	Yes	No

Two hypotheses remain open: the amendment was voted and never declared, or the internal text was changed without a vote. They do not have the same consequences, and nothing on file allows a choice.
