Fictional document — demonstration example

This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

Fictional document, produced for the demonstration. The record uses the adviser's own words, with no rewording that would smooth them out: those are the words the next adviser will read.

What the record carries

Section	Content
Diagnosis	Set by the adviser, in their words
Barriers confirmed in the interview	Travel beyond 30 km partly lifted, shift work now possible — what has changed since the previous record is highlighted
Agreed actions	3, each with its date and owner
What was proposed and refused	With the reason the person gave — stops a colleague offering the same thing again in three months

The record is put in front of the adviser within two minutes of the interview, while they still have it in mind, rather than on Friday evening. It is not only time saved: it is a record that still contains what the person said.

What then goes out, unprompted
