Fictional document

Fictional document — demonstration example

This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

Fictional document, produced for demonstration. Alternative text cannot be inferred from an image: the same photograph is decorative on a home page and informative in a manual.

Period	Images produced	With alternative text
Before the rule	41	0
Since	88	88

Of the 88	Count
Text written by a person	71
Explicitly marked "decorative"	17
Empty by default	0

> An empty attribute reads as a decision — "this image is decorative" — and it rarely is one. That is why the agent refuses to write one, even when it is quicker.

The three other defects the agent checks unasked

Defect	Visible in a browser?
Insufficient colour contrast	No
Form field with no label	No
Inconsistent tab order	No

Three defects an agent introduces without knowing, and that a browser never displays.

Scope of this document: the service operated by Blue Lemon Agent. For an agent deployed at your premises, the applicable location is that of the architecture set out in the quotation and verified before commissioning; local execution is announced only for the configuration explicitly described and accepted in the quotation; the applicable isolation depends on the deployment mode set out in the quotation, no dedicated isolation being presumed; the encryption mechanisms in transit and at rest, their components and key management are those documented for the architecture chosen; roles and permissions are configured and accepted for the identities and systems actually connected; the events logged, their content, their retention period and who may access them are defined for the deployment chosen.
