Fictional document — demonstration example

This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

Fictional document, produced for demonstration. A change invisible to the eye is not invisible to everyone.

Action	Done by the agent?	Why
Propose a change	Yes	With what it alters visually
Measure, live or not	Yes	Measuring changes nothing
Put it live	No	**—
Trigger a deployment	No	**—
Modify an alternative text in production	No	The page is read by engines and cached elsewhere

An accessibility change sometimes moves something on screen, and nobody expects it. That is why the proposal always states what it alters visually.

What review avoided over twelve months

Finding	Count
Agent proposals	—
That would have broken narrow-screen layout	4
Caught in review	4

Because there was a review. It is the only comment the agent makes on that figure.

Scope of this document: the service operated by Blue Lemon Agent. For an agent deployed at your premises, the applicable location is that of the architecture set out in the quotation and verified before commissioning; local execution is announced only for the configuration explicitly described and accepted in the quotation; the applicable isolation depends on the deployment mode set out in the quotation, no dedicated isolation being presumed; the encryption mechanisms in transit and at rest, their components and key management are those documented for the architecture chosen; roles and permissions are configured and accepted for the identities and systems actually connected; the events logged, their content, their retention period and who may access them are defined for the deployment chosen.
