Fictional document — demonstration example
This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

Fictional document, produced for the demonstration: the company, its clients and its invoices are invented. First filter, and it is disqualifying: the administration publishes two separate lists — registered operators, having passed the interoperability tests, and those whose application is complete but whose registration is still pending. An operator on the second list is not an approved platform.

The four operators compared

Operator (fictional)	List	Mixed licence + maintenance lines	Statuses	Carries the PO number	Hosting
Operator A — the one selected	Registered	Yes	Daily batch	Yes	France
Operator B	Registered	Yes	As they come	Yes	European Union

Operator (fictional)	List	Mixed licence + maintenance lines	Statuses	Carries the PO number	Hosting
Operator C	Registered	Partial	As they come	No	France
Operator D	Application pending	—	—	—	—

> Operator D was ruled out on that ground alone, before any functional review: until registration is granted, it is not authorised to transmit. That is the difference that would cost you the benefit of the operation, and it does not show on a sales brochure.

The eight test transmissions, and what they showed

Test	What was sent	Response	What it teaches
1 to 3	Compliant time-and-materials invoices	Accepted	The chain works
4	Invoice deliberately stripped of the customer registration number	Rejected	The rejection comes back to the issuer
5	Invoice deliberately unbalanced on tax	Rejected	The reason is readable and tied to the invoice
6 to 8	Subscription invoices with mixed lines	3 accepted by the platform, 3 rejected by the client's portal	The recipient adds checks of its own

What the tests prove, and how far they prove it: they say what this chain — this software, this operator, these invoices — accepted on that date. It is not a guarantee of
