Fictional document — demonstration example

This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

Fictional document, produced for the demonstration. Documents are read in the state they arrive in — crooked photographs, orders scanned upside down, old certificates. The original is handed back as it is, with the reading alongside: the officer checks what was read, they do not reread the pile.

What is done with each document

Step	What is extracted	What it is compared with
Identification	Order, employer certificate, contract, service certificate, part-time decision, proof of family situation	By content, not by file name
Extraction	Employer, start and end dates, working time, grade, step	Against the human resources information system

Step	What is extracted	What it is compared with
Check	Validity, legibility, consistency of periods	Against the other documents in the same file
Flagging	Overlapping period, certificate ending before the effective date, illegible document, expired document	Before processing, never after

The quarter in figures

Measure	Value	Reading
Documents read	1,840	—
Usable as they stood	1,792	Including those photographed crooked
Sent back before processing	48	With the exact reason and how to obtain the right one
Time spent sorting and filing the documents of one file	34 minutes → 6 minutes	Filing follows the order of the procedure

A return before processing costs the person a day; a return after processing costs the file three weeks. It is the same letter, sent at the right moment.

Reasons for return, across the 48 of the quarter

Reason	Number	What the person receives
Illegible or cut-off document	19	A request for a new photograph, with the framing expected
Certificate ending before the effective date	13	The request letter to the employer, pre-drafted
Expired document	9	The renewal procedure

Reason	Number	What the person receives
Period overlapping another period	7	Both documents side by side, so the person says which one stands

The decision to accept or refuse a document remains with the officer — and it is handed to them within minutes, each document matched to the line of the procedure it satisfies. What is proposed next: filing through the online service, with the reading returned within the hour — 41 of the 48 documents returned would have been redone the same day.
