> Fictional document — demonstration example
> This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

> Fictional document, produced for demonstration. The first two flags grow with every shift: that is what sets their chase at twelve hours rather than forty-eight.

#	Flag	What triggered it	Scope right now	Recipient
1	Instrument out of calibration interval	Interval passed by 12 days	340 parts inspected	Quality manager
2	Issue B drawing on the shop floor	Issue D current since March	Live orders on TR-118	Engineering + supervisor
3	Held batch consumed	2 orders on 03 and 05/08	2 works orders	Quality manager
4	Supplier specification amended	Product sheet of 21/07, no variation	Live framework order	Purchasing + quality

Flag 1 — why the scope grows

Date	Parts inspected with the instrument	Running total
27/07 (interval ends)	—	0
28/07 to 31/07	98	98
01/08 to 04/08	121	219
05/08 to 07/08	121	340

> The scope grows by roughly 40 parts per working day. This is not urgency on principle: it is arithmetic urgency, and it is the only reason this flag comes before the other three.

Proposed chases

Flag	Without action	Then
1 and 3	Reminder at 12 h	Site director at 24 h
2 and 4	Reminder at 48 h	Site director at 96 h
All	—	Weekly summary, by subject

The summary is sorted by subject and not by operator. On calibration or drawing issues, a list by name changes what the tool is: it becomes a record of faults, and flags stop being raised.
