Document issued on 09/11/2026

Fictional document

> Fictional document — demonstration example
> This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

> Fictional document, produced for demonstration. This document does not recommend adding a cache. It surfaces a decision and the fact that made it stale; the call belongs to the team.

The decision

| Item | Content |
|---|---|
| Reference | ADR-014 |
| Date | 12/09/2023 |
| Author | Left the team in 2024 |
| Decision | No cache on the billing service |
| Written reason | Amounts must reflect the database to the second, because of the bank reconciliation screen used live by the accountants |

The fact that contradicts it

| Item | Content |
|---|---|
| Event | Removal of the bank reconciliation screen |
| Date | April 2025 |
| Trace | PR #331 |
| Replaced by | An export |
| Attached to ADR-014? | No |

> The written reason behind ADR-014 has not existed for sixteen months, and nothing in the note says so. A developer reading it today applies a rule whose reason has gone — with no way of knowing.

What is not established

| Question | Why it stays open |
|---|---|
| Did the ADR have other reasons? | Implicit reasons do not get written down, and they exist |
| Has the service's load changed? | Yes, but in which direction is not in my data |
| Is a cache right today? | That is the question, and it arises now |

The draft ADR-014bis

Written with both dated facts at the front, and the question posed in the opening rather than the conclusion. It proposes no decision: it reopens the 2023 one with what was missing to reread it.

Decision: ☐ keep it uncached, reason to be rewritten · ☐ add a cache, conditions to define · ☐ measure the current load first
