Fictional document — demonstration example

This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

Fictional document, produced for the demonstration. A defence statement is the document by which the authority answers, before the administrative court, the arguments of the party challenging it. The agent builds the first draft and clears the file; the defence strategy, the arbitration between grounds and the signature belong to the department and to the council's counsel.

What is handed over for each file

Deliverable	Content	What it replaces
Chronology of the file	Every date, every instrument, every letter, with the document that establishes it beside it	More than a third of the time of the statement, done by hand

Deliverable	Content	What it replaces
Grounds of the claim taken one by one	Each with the answer already served by the council in a comparable file — 3 found over eleven years	The search through the archive
Texts applicable at the date of the facts	And not at today's date — the distinction that matters most in litigation	A manual check per text
Drafted statement	In the form the department uses, points to arbitrate placed at the top	The first drafting

The time and the deadline

Measure	Today	With the agent
First draft statement	4 h 12 — 30 % of the time of the statement	1 h 41 — 12 %
Availability of the draft	9 days after the claim is served	The next day
Across 44 statements a year	—	110 hours, and 9 more days per file to work on the substance

The 96 pre-litigation files reconciled with the archive

Finding	Number	What is prepared
Files with a twin in the archive, document for document	34 of 96	The twin file, its outcome and its grounds
Files where the council succeeded on a ground never served again since	11	11 sheets written, ready for the arbitration of the director and counsel

What the department gains is counted in evenings: the file arrives cleared, the chronology done, the opposing grounds matched to what the house has already argued. The choice of what the council argues is made on a complete file, and it is made the day after the claim.
