Fictional document — demonstration example

This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

Fictional document, produced for the demonstration. Every line of the chronology points to the exhibit number and page that establishes it. The judge reads to decide, no longer to retrieve — and the decision remains the judge's, reasoned on the exhibits in front of them.

What the mapping contains

Item	Volume	What is shown alongside
Chronology of facts, interviews and procedural steps	314 dated events	The exhibit number and page that establishes it
of which events resting on a single exhibit	26	Flagged as such — that is where the argument will be
Table of exhibits	128 numbers	Nature, date, author, document that first cites it

Item	Volume	What is shown alongside
Summary	2 pages	In the form used by the chamber

The 3 points flagged without being asked

Point	What is observed	What is attached	Who assesses
Cited exhibit missing	Cited as number 47 in a police record, absent from the file	The holding body is named in the record; the request for production is written	The chamber
Conflicting interview dates	The 14th and the 15th of the same month for the same person, in two records	Both pages side by side, and the note that one of them carries a handwritten correction	The judge
Exhibit dated after the document referring to it	The exhibit's date is later than the document's	Both dates, and nothing more	The judge — the significance is a matter of assessment

None of these three points is characterised: they are observed, sourced to the page and handed over. What the agent brings is putting them on the table thirty-one days before the hearing rather than the weekend before it.

The time this moves, across the 120 large files of the year

Step	Before	After	Who does it
Rebuilding the chronology and matching the exhibits	4 h 24	0	The agent
Reading and assessment	36 min	36 min	The judge — unchanged, and deliberately so

Total for the summary	5 hours — 100 % of the scale	36 minutes — 12 %	—
Annual gain	—	528 hours	Given back to analysis and hearings

> Reading time has not been cut, and it must not be. What disappears is the rebuilding; what remains is the only work in which the judge exercises their office.
