Fictional document — demonstration example

This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

Fictional document, produced for the demonstration. Nothing goes out directly before the mandate is signed. Until it is, the agent prepares draft answers; the registry sends them.

What the mandate earns — the figure that decides

Measure	Without mandate	With mandate
Average time to answer a court user's e-mail	11 days	1 day
Enquiry arriving on a Saturday	Handled on Monday	Handled on Saturday
Enquiries falling within the 11 subjects	7,100 a year	7,100 handled at any hour
Enquiries with no answer the same day	1,900	470

The mandate, in six lines

Clause	Content
Exact scope	The eleven subjects, listed by name, and nothing else. Any enquiry outside the list reaches the service with a draft answer written, sourced and ready to go out
Excluded in every case	The content of a file, an assessment of the outcome of a case, any information on an investigation file under way — the answer goes to the registry, which sends it within 3 hours
Particulars carried by every answer	The source and the date the information was last updated, and the mention that the answer was prepared by a digital assistant of the court
Next-day check	Daily one-page list of the answers sent the day before — an inaccurate answer is caught in an hour, not in three weeks
Duration	Reviewed after three months. Without an explicit decision at the review, the mandate stops — it is renewal that requires a signature, not termination
Withdrawal	One word from the head of registry, and direct answering stops within the minute; answers go back to being drafts for approval

What is made known to court users

Medium	Content	Where
Information notice	What the assistant handles, what it does not, how to ask for an officer	Displayed at the reception desk and on a dedicated page of the site
Telephone greeting	The digital assistant announcement, in the first sentence	On every call, without exception

The review timetable

Legal notice (in French): bluelemonagent.ai/mentions-legales

Milestone	What is produced	Who decides
D+30	First statement: volumes, delays, corrected answers	For information
D+90	Full statement and proposed revised scope	The head of registry and the presiding judge — without an explicit decision, it stops
At any time	Withdrawal of a subject or of the whole mandate	The head of registry

> A written mandate, capped, dated and withdrawable in a word is not a precaution: it is what makes it possible to say yes. The court does not have to choose between reviewing every answer and signing a blank cheque.

For the court to settle
