Fictional document — demonstration example

This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

Fictional document, produced for demonstration. No decision on the merits is taken. The document records what the schedule says and places it beside what was asked for.

What is uploaded and usable

| Value extracted | Document | Page |
|---|---|---|
| Identity | Identity card | 1 |
| Address | Rent receipt | 1 |
| Household composition | Family record book | 2 and 3 |
| Earned income | 6 payslips | 1 of each |
| Bank details | Bank details form | 1 |

What is missing, and what should not have been asked for

| Document | Requested | Required by the schedule | Status |
|---|---|---|---|
| Tax assessment, year −1 | Yes | Yes | Genuinely missing |
| Employment certificate | Yes | No, since January 2024 | Should not be requested |
| Signed declaration | No | Yes, since January 2024 | On file |

> The resident has been hunting two documents for six weeks; only one will be required. The second was replaced by a signed declaration they have already provided.

What is left to the officer

Gap between the letter sent and the schedule: ☐ the signed declaration suffices · ☐ request the certificate anyway · ☐ check with the scheme owner

The agent ticks nothing. It records that the schedule changed and that the letter did not follow; what the department does with that on this file is an assessment decision.
