Fictional document — demonstration example

This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

Fictional document, produced for demonstration. The most exposed contract is not the one with the largest variations. Seven variations of 1 to 3% pass unnoticed one at a time.

Contract	Variations	Largest	Cumulative	Trajectory
Highways	3 notified + 1 in preparation	8.7%	19.4% → 25.6%	Rising
Cleaning	7 notified	3.4%	14.8%	Rising, in small steps
IT maintenance	2 notified	6.8%	11.1%	Stable

The cleaning contract is the quietest of the three. None of its seven variations drew attention; their sum does. That is exactly the case a cumulative display makes visible without blocking anything.

The cleaning contract's seven variations

#	Share	Cumulative after
1	2.1%	2.1%
2	1.8%	3.9%
3	3.4%	7.3%
4	1.2%	8.5%
5	2.6%	11.1%
6	1.9%	13.0%
7	1.8%	14.8%

What would be shown, on your approval

When	Information shown	What you gain
A draft variation is opened	Current cumulative + the draft's effect	You see the variation's effect before you open it, and nothing holds up your timetable
Quarter end	Contracts passing a threshold you set	The threshold is yours: the alert follows your procurement policy, not an imported norm
