Fictional document — demonstration example

This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

Fictional document, produced for demonstration. Companies and addresses are invented. No line is kept without its source and the date it was consulted: that is what makes it possible to tell the prospect where their address came from in the first message, as article 14 GDPR requires.

How the score is built

Component	Points	Verifiable on
Dated fact and freshness	40	press release, careers page, public announcement
Size and sector	30	company register
Identified sales lead	30	“team” page or public org chart

Extract from the list

Company	Headcount	Dated fact	Address	Type	Source	Score

Cedarline Technologies	48	Hiring 3 salespeople — 12/06/2026	contact@cedarline.example	generic	“We're hiring” page	92
Northbay Consulting	31	New office in Lyon — 02/07/2026	m.pike@northbay.example	named	“Our team” page	84

Distribution and recommendation

Band	Companies	Recommendation
Above 70	120	Open the campaign here
40 to 70	200	Comparison group, to test the score
Below 40	180	Do not contact for now

> Generic or named: two regimes, both workable. A contact@ address belongs to the company; a named address identifies a person and the GDPR applies in full. In both cases the source notice appears in the message.

What was not done

No extraction from a directory or a professional network. Database law prohibits extracting a substantial part of a protected database, and those platforms' terms prohibit it as well. The 500 lines come from company websites, press rooms and public registers, consulted one by one.
