Fictional document

Fictional document — demonstration example

This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

Fictional document, produced for demonstration. No penalty amount is computed. A chaser containing a quantifiable error becomes a chaser disputable in its entirety, principal included.

The three necessary elements

Element	Available?	Where it sits
What your terms of sale provide	Yes	Terms, article 8
What the customer actually accepted	Not verifiable	Depends on the signed contract
Start date of the calculation	No	Receipt date not recorded

What your terms of sale provide, quoted

"Any late payment gives rise as of right to a fixed recovery indemnity, together with penalties calculated in accordance with these terms."

Terms of sale, article 8. The text is reproduced as it stands; the agent derives no amount from it.

The receipt date is missing on this invoice, and the agent says so rather than starting from the invoice date. Starting from the issue date would give a higher and more fragile figure.

Receipt date recorded	29	14%
No receipt date	185	86%
Total	214	100%

This is data to collect at issue, and it costs nothing at that moment. Reconstructed after the fact, it is worth nothing.
