Fictional document

> Fictional document — demonstration example
> This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

> Fictional document, produced for demonstration. No alert is created and the message is not kept. Telling HR that an employee mentioned their manager is exactly the opposite of what should be done.

The message displayed, as it stands

"I am not the right contact for this situation, and I am not going to ask you questions. Here is who can see you: [harassment officer], [occupational health], [staff representatives]. You can also write to [address] — that message does not pass through me."

> The last sentence is the most important in the message. It tells the employee that the channel being offered is not the one they have just used.

What happens, and what does not

Action	Done?	Why

Display the contacts	Yes	—
Stop the exchange	Yes	Anything further would be fact-gathering
Ask since when	No	That is an act
Ask what happened	No	Same
Ask the manager's name	No	Same
Alert HR	No	The opposite of what should be done
Create a flag	No	Same
Keep the message	No	What is written to a tool is written somewhere

The families of formulations

Family	Formulations	Example trigger
Bullying	14	"he pressures me every day"
Sexual harassment	11	—
Discrimination	12	"ever since I said that…"
Physical danger	9	"this workstation is not safe"
Distress	10	Referral to emergency numbers
Others	5	—

> The list is deliberately broad. One stop too many costs the employee a referral they did not ask for; a stop missed costs something else.
