Item	Content
Subject	Your request of 06/08/2026 — release of a discharge summary
Addressee	Human resources · Verel Industries

Body of the letter

Dear Sir or Madam,

You ask us to release the discharge summary of one of your employees, in order to substantiate a period of sick leave.

We cannot act on this. Medical record items are covered by professional secrecy and cannot be released to an employer, or to any third party, including with the verbal agreement of the person concerned.

This reply is not a judgement on your request: it is the only one we are entitled to give.

The sick-leave certificate your employee must send you carries the particulars you are entitled to — the dates, and nothing else. It carries no medical detail, and that is precisely its purpose.

Should your employee wish to share further material with you, it is for him to request it himself and hand it over. We cannot do so on his behalf.

What the practice may release, and to whom

Requester	What may be released	In what form
The patient	The entire record	Written request + proof of identity
A doctor named by the patient	The items requested	Written request from the patient
The employer	Nothing	—
An insurer	Nothing	—
A relative	Nothing, save a beneficiary of a deceased person in the cases provided for	Proof of standing

> The practice commits the offence, not the party that asks. An insistent request does not move liability: it stays with whoever releases the document.

> Request a demo with your own documents
> This document is a fictitious example. To see the agent work on your own documents, request a demo from its page.
