Fictional document — demonstration example

This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

Fictional document, produced for the demonstration. Indexing is done on the CONTENT of the files, not on their names. The document sought was called memo_final_reviewed_CE2.docx and carried neither its subject, nor its date, nor the meeting that had commissioned it.

The request and what comes up

Document	Date	Why it is attached
Ruling memo — surface water drainage, plateau municipalities	14/09/2021	The document sought — identified by its subject, its signature and the meeting of origin
Minutes of the management meeting that commissioned it	31/08/2021	With the name of the person who raised the question
Resolution of the executive bureau	10/2021	What was decided following the memo

Document	Date	Why it is attached
Financial sheet attached to the resolution	10/2021	The amounts as they were presented
Two letters from mayors referring to it	2023 and 03/2026	The March one is still without a written reply — the kind of letter that resurfaces in a meeting

What makes a file findable

Clue read	What it yields
Subject and signatory	The nature of the document, even without a helpful name
Filing date	The version, when the file name lies
Meeting of origin	A document comes up with what explains it, never alone
People named	The linked documents of the same file
Cross-references between documents	The follow-up given, and what remains unanswered

The state of the document management system

Finding	Volume	Consequence
Files indexed	41,300	Nine years of archives
With no usable name	11,400	Those are the ones you hunt for on a Friday evening before an executive bureau
Searches with no result last year	71 out of 620	A decision you cannot find gets taken again from scratch, and sometimes differently
Recovered on rerun	64	Each with its date, its author and the meeting that produced it

Finding	Volume	Consequence
Located outside the body	7	With the name of who holds them

What is proposed: a monthly pass over recent deposits to record the subject, the meeting of origin and the linked documents. Indexing renames nothing and moves nothing: existing paths keep working, and the body can stop the monthly pass without losing the index already built.
