Fictional document — demonstration example

This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

Fictional document, produced for demonstration; patients are shown by initials. The four patients are presented in the order they were listed, and in no other order.

Rank	Patient	Listed	Waiting	Declined an early slot?
1	Mr R.	16/07/2026	23 days	No
2	Ms T.	18/07/2026	21 days	Yes, on 24/07
3	Mr D.	19/07/2026	20 days	No
4	Ms L.	21/07/2026	18 days	No

Order of listing is an administrative criterion. "Whoever needs it most" is not, and it is not computed. If the clinician wants another order, they give it — that is their decision and it is entirely theirs.

Ms T. declined an early slot on 24 July. That is diary information, not health information: it saves a call whose answer is already known, and it implies nothing else.

What each call preparation contains

Element	Present?
Slot and duration	Yes
Date listed	Yes
Recorded administrative reason	Yes
Slots already declined	Yes
Anything from the medical record	No — never
A computed priority order	No — never

Reception needs no clinical element to offer a date. That is what allows this preparation to exist without any health data circulating.
