Fictional document

Fictional document — demonstration example

This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

Fictional document, produced for demonstration. The user does not conclude the docs are old: they conclude they are on the wrong screen.

Outcome	Gaps
Fixed in the documentation	26
Fixed in the product	4
Unsettled	4

The four fixed in the product were fixed because the product's word was less clear than the documentation's. That is the judgement the agent could not make, which is why the flag goes to both authors together.

To only one of them	Each assumes the other will follow
To both together	The term gets settled

The four unsettled

They are the places where the company has not decided how it names its own feature. The agent leaves them open and brings them back; it does not choose the term.

Case	Documentation's word	Screen's word	Settled?
1	Term A	Term B	No
2	Term A	Term B	No
3	Term A	Term B	No
4	Term A	Term B	No

Scope of this document: the service operated by Blue Lemon Agent. For an agent deployed at your premises, the applicable location is that of the architecture set out in the quotation and verified before commissioning; local execution is announced only for the configuration explicitly described and accepted in the quotation; the applicable isolation depends on the deployment mode set out in the quotation, no dedicated isolation being presumed; the encryption mechanisms in transit and at rest, their components and key management are those documented for the architecture chosen; roles and permissions are configured and accepted for the identities and systems actually connected; the events logged, their content, their retention period and who may access them are defined for the deployment chosen.
