Fictional document — demonstration example

This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

Fictional document, produced for demonstration. What I handle are records: what was written down, not what happened.

What the records pointed to	What the real cause was
A worn tool: age, gradual drift, last change date	A sensor refitted wrongly after cleaning

Invisible in every readable record. An automatic analysis would have produced a coherent, sourced and wrong file.

What is flagged instead

Flag	What it indicates
Analysis followed by no recurrence for six months	Nothing contradicts it
Recurrence despite an action judged effective	The analysis was wrong

For an agent deployed at your premises, the applicable location is that of the architecture set out in the quotation and verified before commissioning; local execution is announced only for the configuration explicitly described and accepted in the quotation; the applicable isolation depends on the deployment mode set out in the quotation, no dedicated isolation being presumed; the encryption mechanisms in transit and at rest, their components and key management are those documented for the architecture chosen; roles and permissions are configured and accepted for the identities and systems actually connected; the events logged, their content, their retention period and who may access them are defined for the deployment chosen.
