Fictional document — demonstration example

This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

Fictional document, produced for the demonstration. A proviso stated as an aside, behind a decision in the present tense, is ordinary phrasing in a site review — and it is what decides the shape the line in the minutes takes.

What the 60 meetings gave

Finding	Number
Sentences carrying an explicit proviso	37
Carried through with their proviso	34
Written up as firm decisions	3
Corrected by the person chairing before circulation	3
Minutes that went out with the gap	0

> The three were caught at review, and that is exactly its job. But a correction that has to be made three times is a correction the treatment can avoid.

The phrasing at issue, and what is written now

What was said	What had been written	What is written now
"We are going with the condensing option, subject to the inspection body's reply"	Decision: adopt the condensing option	Decision subject to a proviso: adopt the condensing option — proviso: the inspection body's reply · lifted by the design team · date carried in the minutes

The treatment, run again over the 60 meetings

	Before	In service
Provisos carried into the minutes	34 out of 37	37 out of 37
Firm decisions and decisions subject to a proviso	In the same place	Two separate sections
What a decision subject to a proviso carries	The decision alone	The proviso, who lifts it, the date

The person chairing rereads, corrects and approves: they settle the minutes, and it is on that approval that the recording is deleted. The treatment does not replace that reading: it leaves it less to catch.

To be settled by the company

Default deadline carried on a decision subject to a proviso: _____ days
