Fictional document

> Fictional document — demonstration example
> This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

> Fictional document, produced for demonstration. Neither order is named as the one that must fall. The attached draft repeal carries copied citations and an operative part left blank.

The contradicting passages

Order of 14/05/2019, article 2: "Parking is permitted on rue des Exemples, from no. 2 to no. 48, on Saturdays from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m."

Order of 03/09/2024, article 1: "Parking is prohibited on rue des Exemples, from no. 2 to no. 48, on all days and at all hours."

Point of comparison	2019	2024	Overlap?
Stretch	no. 2 to no. 48	no. 2 to no. 48	Identical
Days	Saturday	All days	Yes
Hours	8 a.m.-1 p.m.	All hours	Yes
Direction	Permits	Prohibits	Opposite

> A driver ticketed on a Saturday can produce the 2019 order. It is in the register, it was never repealed, and nothing on the document indicates that a later text says the opposite.

What the attached draft repeal contains

Element	State	Why
Citations	Copied from both orders	Read, dated, provenance given
References to both acts	Complete	Dates and numbers carried over
Operative part	Blank	Which order falls is a decision
Grounds	Blank	They turn on the 2024 intention

A draft with a pre-filled operative part would have settled the question on the department's behalf, giving that decision the appearance of a drafting formality.
