Fictional document

> Fictional document — demonstration example
> This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

> Fictional document, produced for demonstration. Indexing is by subject, never by author. A tool tracking the questions asked by an elected person would build, without anyone deciding to, a record of their activity held by the administration.

Item	Kept?	Why
The elements proposed	Yes	Retracing the path
The reply or source each comes from	Yes	Checking a provenance
The date	Yes	Chronology
What became of them	Yes	Used, amended or dropped
History per representative or parliamentarian	Impossible	Would be an activity record
Statistics on who asks and about what	Impossible	Same reason
Analysis of the subjects raised by a person	Impossible	Same reason

Item	Kept?	Why
Statistics per drafter	Impossible	Unrelated to the quality of replies

How subject indexing holds technically

Mechanism	Effect
Indexing key: the subject	No search by author is possible
No author identifier kept with the elements	Nothing to cross-reference
Monthly summary organised by subject	No ranking of people

> It is also the right way to search. When you look for what has already been answered, what matters is what the administration said — not whom it said it to.

To be set by the administration

Retention period for elements and their sources: _____ months

Retention period for the subject-based summary: _____ months
