Fictional document — demonstration example

This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

Fictional document, produced for demonstration. Every element carries its date and source: an element from 2023 is not used the way one from last May is, and presenting the five flat would make them equivalent when they are not.

#	Element	Source	Date	State
1	Scope of the scheme	Signed reply	14/03/2025	Usable
2	Application arrangements	Signed reply	22/09/2025	Usable
3	Volumes recorded	Published note	06/05/2026	Recent
4	Timetable announced	Minutes of a sitting	11/03/2026	Usable
5	Handling of a particular case	Reply to a complaint	28/01/2026	Usable
6	Eligibility conditions, former version	Signed reply	2023	Fragile
7	Amount of support, former version	Signed reply	2023	Fragile

> The two elements marked fragile are not withdrawn. They say what the administration answered at the time, which stays useful for knowing what it committed to — but used as they stand in a reply today, they would be false.

The point on which there is nothing

Question asked	What exists	What the agent does
Prospects for 2027	No expression by the administration	Nothing — it flags it

Prospects for 2027: .....

Four fifths of the reply are documented and sourced. The remaining fifth is the one calling for a judgement, and it is visible immediately rather than discovered on rereading.
