Fictional document

> Fictional document — demonstration example
> This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

> Fictional document, produced for demonstration. No data from one recruitment is reused in another. A candidate not selected in March who applies again in October is a new candidate.

Item	Kept?	Why
The elements recorded	Yes	Answering the candidate
The page each was read on	Yes	Checking what the tool did
The date	Yes	Chronology
Missing documents flagged	Yes	Improving the form
Ranking, score	Impossible	They do not exist in the tool
Candidate profile	Impossible	No profile is built
Comparison between applications	Impossible	No comparison is made
Reuse from one recruitment to another	Impossible	Would judge on a replaced file

Item	Kept?	Why
Trace of a judgement	Impossible	None was made

> The fourth prohibition is the least obvious and the most important. A tool that remembered a candidate would apply to their second application what it retained of the first — and the person would be judged on a file they themselves replaced.

What the monthly summary contains

Content	What it is about
Documents most often missing	Your form
Vacancy criteria nobody states	Your adverts
Deadlines met	Your circuits

All three indicators are about the authority's adverts and circuits, never about the people answering them. That is also where the gains are: three of this morning's four flags came from an advert or a form.

To be set by the authority

Retention period for recorded elements: _____ months after the recruitment closes

Retention period for the monthly summary: _____ months
