Fictional document

Fictional document — demonstration example

This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

Fictional document, produced for demonstration. A value written into that field becomes the salesperson's word without them having said it.

What the agent produces, and where it puts it

Element	Produced?	Location
Estimate based on comparable deals	Yes	BESIDE the field
The facts it is made of	Yes	With the estimate
The number of cases it rests on	Yes	With the estimate
The value in the "probability of signing" field	No	—

Why that field is not like the others

What the field feeds	Consequence
Forecasts	An aggregate figure rests on it

What the field feeds	Consequence
Pipeline meetings	The salesperson has to defend it
Targets	It becomes a commitment

What is pre-filled without reservation

Item	Source	Item carried
Legal name	Public company register	Source and date
Legal form	Same	Source and date
Declared headcount	Same	Source and date
Address	Same	Source and date
Data about a person	No external source	—

The proof that 31 % of records are false

Test	Result
Move the default value in the drop-down	The 31 % figure follows the new first value

So it is not information: it is the position of an item in a list.

For the company to settle
