Fictional document — demonstration example

This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

Fictional document, produced for the demonstration. This script does not start from the brochure: it starts from the objections customers actually raise, taken from 340 visit reports. A sales script that does not talk about what gets said in meetings is not read twice.

Why the old one stopped being opened

Finding	Old script (2024)	What the visit reports say
Objections handled	6	14 appear in meetings
Of the 4 most frequent objections	0 handled	They run from 19 % to 38 % of visits
Dated proofs	2 out of 6	Every answer now carries one

The four major objections, and their sourced answer

Objection	Frequency	Answer	Proof
« Time to commissioning is too long »	38 %	The average lead time observed, with the figure	Last 60 installations
« We already run another brand »	31 %	Fitting compatibility, reference by reference	Existing application note, never cited
« Who handles maintenance? »	27 %	The maintenance contract and its frequency	General service terms
« Prove the 22 % to me »	19 %	The protocol, the bench, the conditions	Test report of 12/03/2026 — the easiest objection to handle, and the least armed

How each answer is built

Block	Content	Why it is there
The answer	One sentence, in the house tone	A salesperson does not read a paragraph in a meeting
The proof	Document, date, page	An undated proof is no better than an assertion
The limit	What the answer does NOT cover	A salesperson who knows the limit of their argument does not get cornered on it

New objection this quarter: spare parts availability, at 17 % of visits. It has no written answer anywhere in the company. Exactly the kind of subject that is easier to deal with at 17 % than at 40 % — hence the escalation threshold proposed.

For the sales director to settle
