Fictional document — demonstration example

This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

Fictional document, produced for the demonstration. Indexing works on the CONTENT of files, not on their names. The manual that prevails for the DP-40 pump is called DP40_manual_VF_v3_OK_final.pdf and carries neither its revision index nor its date in its name.

The DP-40 case — eleven files, one prevails

What is read inside the document	What it gives
Revision index	D — the most recent of the eleven
Signature date	18/02/2026
Product reference in the header	DP-40, even when the file name does not carry it
Internal cross-references	Linked documents surface with the document sought

The state of the file server

Finding	Volume	Consequence
Files indexed	6,400	—
With no usable name	1,940	Exactly the ones you hunt for on a Friday evening
Version duplicates	240	Risk of starting from an obsolete index
Obsolete manuals still linked from product pages	3	Your customers download them, not your teams — to be handled this week
Test reports later than 2024 never used in marketing	41	Your seam of fresh, verifiable arguments, and it is asleep
Hours of document hunting per quarter	62 h	More than a week and a half of work for a team of three

The time going back to the documentation moves

Task	Before	After	What is left to do
Going back to the source documentation	28 % of production time	8 %	Check that the source retained is the one that prevails

The three manuals to replace first

Reference	Index live	Index in force	Pages concerned
DP-40	B (2022)	D (18/02/2026)	2 product pages, 1 range page
SR-12	A (2021)	C (09/2025)	1 product page
BX-08	A (2020)	B (04/2024)	1 product page, 1 application note

What indexing does not do: it renames nothing, moves nothing, deletes nothing. Existing paths keep working, and if the monthly pass is stopped, the index already built stays.
