Morning of the 6th · fictional document

> Fictional document — demonstration example
> This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

> Fictional document, produced for demonstration. None of these eleven tasks is entered into the workload plan: entering them is the firm's move.

The dates quoted, and where they come from

Deadline	Date	Message that carries it
Payroll inputs for the industrial client	the 8th	Client message, the 2nd at 2:07 p.m.
Dashboard for the committee	the 12th	Thread of the 28th of last month
Feedback on the revised budget	the 15th	Message from the chartered accountant, the 4th

The date the agent does not announce

A client asks what turnaround the firm usually gives. That turnaround appears in no document of the firm, and the agent does not invent it. What it supplies instead is a measurement of the firm itself, presented as such: 1.4 working days over the last twelve months, 4.2 days during closing weeks. An observed average is not a commitment — it becomes one the day the firm writes it into its terms, and the agent then quotes it as such.
