Fictional document

Fictional document — demonstration example

This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

Fictional document, produced for demonstration. The line that changes the nature of the decision appears in no payroll tool: seven of the employees concerned have left the company.

Year	Journeys	Kilometres	Employees concerned	Still on the payroll
2024	388	61,200	31	27
2025	441	72,400	36	31
2026	412	68,400	34	34
Distinct total	1,241	202,000	41	34

An adjustment would cover three years and forty-one employees, seven of whom have left. Adjusting for somebody who has left means finding them, writing to them, and explaining — an operation of a different nature.

What is on the table	What you gain
The stored rate and the published rate, side by side across the three years	The choice is made on two columns; your accountant signs, because the tax and social consequences bind them
The correction prepared in the tool, ready to be triggered on a word	You choose the day it applies, instead of taking it on live reimbursements
The gap in euros, journey by journey, over the 1,241 journeys and 202,000 km	Once the rate is settled, the meeting decides on an amount, not on an impression
