Fictional document — demonstration example

This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

Fictional document, produced for demonstration. It was born of an incident, somebody took it on, and it never had reason to enter a document.

The unwritten step	Value
Share of cases concerned	41%
Duration	2 minutes
Cases stopped per week	9
Presence in the procedure	None

What it stops

Anomaly	Caught by the step?
Inconsistent references	Yes
Missing document	Yes

Anomaly	Caught by the step?
Implausible amount	Yes

> Automating the written procedure would have made the process work faster, and those nine cases would have gone out — the error only coming back at invoicing, or later.

Across three processes	Count
Undescribed steps found	11
Of which checks	4

The agent can automate what a check verifies, never what it decides.

Scope of this document: the service operated by Blue Lemon Agent. For an agent deployed at your premises, the applicable location is that of the architecture set out in the quotation and verified before commissioning; local execution is announced only for the configuration explicitly described and accepted in the quotation; the applicable isolation depends on the deployment mode set out in the quotation, no dedicated isolation being presumed; the encryption mechanisms in transit and at rest, their components and key management are those documented for the architecture chosen; roles and permissions are configured and accepted for the identities and systems actually connected; the events logged, their content, their retention period and who may access them are defined for the deployment chosen.
