Fictional document — demonstration example

This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

Fictional document, produced for the demonstration. This is not a refusal, it is a mandate. Asking for a price puts the company's name on the market: the action is lawful, it binds the company, and so it belongs to the board. The file is ready either way — the mandate only changes whose hand sends it.

Why the price cannot be estimated

Acquisition	Year	List price	Negotiated price	Gap
Packaging line, Lyon	2024	€1.42M	€1.28M	−10%
Assembly line, Nantes	2022	€0.96M	€0.74M	−23%
Cutting line, Reims	2019	€1.10M	€1.01M	−8%

An assumption drawn from that range would be worth ±€340k on a €3.4M investment — more than the gap between two of the scenarios put to the vote. An invented figure would have decided in the board's place.

The bounds of the mandate

Bound	Content
Scope	Indicative price requests only — no order, no deposit, no letter of intent, no signature
Recipients	3 manufacturers and 2 leasing companies, named in the mandate, under a confidentiality agreement signed beforehand
Content sent	Technical specifications only — no project name, no intended location, no calendar
Cap	5 consultations, not one more
Duration	Until the board meeting on 14 March
Withdrawal	On a word, at any time, immediate effect
Information	Every despatch reported to the finance director, with the recipient and the exact text

What the mandate saves

Route	Time for prices to come back	Load on the industrial department	Precision of the assumption
Under mandate	15 days	None	Real price
Sent by the industrial director himself	15 days after he sends them	10 minutes	Real price
No consultation at all	—	None	A ±€340k range

A price request that describes the project makes it public. That is why the project name and the intended location appear in none of the five despatches — the confidentiality of a site opening is lost only once.
